

Castle Acre Relgion ‘The Past is All Around Us’

Castle Acre's Historic Landscape: Making your own map.

Listed below are some of the historic sites we know about – some have exact locations and some are conjectural and are for you to decide, using any evidence given in the notes.

Mark as many as you can on your OS map, to make your own 18th & 19th Century Castle Acre Map.

The Sites:

Lodge Farm, an Enclosure farmstead surrounded by its fields.

Manor House Farm, an Enclosure farmstead surrounded by its fields.

A block of rectangular-shaped fields, as an example of Enclosure.

Two fields with marl pits at their centres.

The watermeadows with their leats, channels and aqueducts.

Brick kiln and brickworks TF 8132 1517 Owners of 'End House' to the south state that a red patch appears on site of kiln after ploughing. The brick pit is now the pond in the garden and beneath the lawn there is a flint surface where horses pulled carts up to the road.

Lime Pits in Cuckstool Lane.

Village Wells

The site of the postmill at TF 8212 1558.